1 On stipulation of the Parties, the Court enters a Protective Order in this matter as 2 follows:

4 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

5 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 6 confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from 7 public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this matter would 8 be warranted. Accordingly, the parties have stipulated to and petitioned this Court to 9 enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this 10 Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery 11 and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that 12 are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential. The 13 parties have agreed that the terms of this Protective Order shall also apply to any future
14 voluntary disclosures of confidential, proprietary, or private information. The parties 15 reserve their rights to object to or withhold any information, including confidential,
16 proprietary, or private information, on any other applicable grounds permitted by law,
17 including third-party rights and relevancy.

18
19 2. DEFINITIONS

20 2.1 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, 21 employees, consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

22 2.2 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, 23 regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among 24 other things, testimony, transcripts, or tangible things), that are produced or generated in 25 disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

26 2.3 "Confidential" Information or Items: All information in whatever 27 form, such as oral, written, documentary, tangible, intangible, electronic, or digitized 28 now or hereafter in existence that:

a) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means, by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use;

b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy; and

c) is otherwise regarded by a party as being confidential, private, or proprietary in nature.

2.4 “Attorneys’ Eyes Only”: Discovery Material or such portion of such material that the disclosing party has a reasonable belief that the information disclosed, if known to one or more parties in the case would have a reasonable chance of putting the disclosing party to a competitive disadvantage or otherwise result in the disclosure of sensitive proprietary information that could cause future harm. Notwithstanding the terms of this agreement, Plaintiff’s attorney is entitled to disclose to Plaintiff the total revenue and gross profit data disclosed in this action, as well as the names of any parties responsible for distributing the infringing product at issue (including any additional retailers not named as defendants in this action), or any components of said product.

2.5 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

2.6 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.7 Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

2.8 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

2.9 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action. This definition includes a

1 professional jury or trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation. The 2 expert witness or consultant may not be a past or a current employee of the Party
3 (including any affiliates or related entities) adverse to the Party engaging the expert 4 witness or consultant, or someone who at the time of retention is anticipated to become 5 an employee of the Party (including any affiliates or related entities) adverse to the 6 Party engaging the expert witness or consultant.

7 2.10 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation
8 support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or 9 demonstrations; organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and 10 their employees and subcontractors.

11 12 3. SCOPE

13 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected 14 Material (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as 15 well as all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, 16 conversations, or presentations by parties or counsel to or in litigation or in other 17 settings that might reveal Protected Material.

18 19 4. DURATION

20 Even after the termination of this action, the confidentiality obligations imposed
21 by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing 22 or a court order otherwise directs.

23 24 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

25 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for 26 Protection. Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection 27 under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 28 qualifies under the appropriate standards. A Designating Party must take care to 1 designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or 2 written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents,

3 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 4 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

6 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided
7 in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise
8 stipulated or ordered, material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be 9 clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

10 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

11 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts 12 of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the 13 legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” at the top or bottom of 14 each page that contains protected material.

15 A Party or non-party that makes originals or copies of documents or 16 materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the 17 inspecting Party has indicated which material it intends to copy. During the inspection 18 and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 19 deemed “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the 20 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must designate, either in 21 writing or on the record (at a deposition), which documents, or portions thereof, qualify 22 for protection under this Order. Then the Receiving Party must affix the 23 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” legend at the top of each 24 copied page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the 25 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 26 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins)
27 and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted (either 28 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”).

(b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony, and further specify any portions of the testimony that qualify as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” When it is impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection, and when it appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Party or non-party that sponsors, offers, or gives the testimony may invoke on the record (before the deposition or proceeding is concluded) a right to have up to 20 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”). Only those portions of the testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 20 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as instructed by the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portions, specifying whether they qualify as “CONFIDENTIAL” or as “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” does not, standing alone, waive the Designating

1 Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. If material is 2 appropriately designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY"
3 after the material was initially produced, the Receiving Party, on timely notification of 4 the designation, must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in 5 accordance with the provisions of this Order.

7 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

8 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating
9 Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial 10 unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of 11 the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation
12 by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

13 6.2 Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a 14 Designating Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin 15 the process by conferring with counsel for the Designating Party in writing. In 16 conferring, the challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the 17 confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an 18 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if 19 no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A 20 challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has 21 engaged in this meet-and-confer process first.

22 6.3 Court Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a 23 confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating
24 Party may file and serve a motion that identifies the challenged material and sets forth
25 in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a 26 competent declaration that affirms that the movant has complied with the meet-and-27 confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph and that sets forth with 28 specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation that was given by the

1 Designating Party in the meet-and-confer dialogue. The parties agree that a 2 confidentiality designation shall not create a presumption in favor of such 3 confidentiality designation, and that the Court shall decide the issue as such.

4 Until the Court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford 5 the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the 6 Producing Party's designation.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that 9 is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case
 10 only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected
 11 Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions
 12 described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party
 13 must comply with the provisions of section 11, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

14 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 15 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 16 authorized under this Order.

17 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless 18 otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 19 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" 20 only to:

21 (a) the Receiving Party's outside counsel, as well as employees of 22 said outside counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for 23 this litigation;

24 (b) Board members, officers and directors of the Receiving Party;

25 (c) Other employees of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 26 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who are bound by internal confidentiality
 27 obligations as part of their employment or who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(e) the Court personnel assigned to this litigation;

(f) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(g) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A). Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(h) the author of the document or the original source of the information.

7.3 Disclosure of “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

(a) the Receiving Party’s outside counsel, as well as employees of said outside counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

(b) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(c) the Court personnel assigned to this litigation;

(d) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and

(e) the author of the document or the original source of the information.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would compel disclosure of any Discovery Material, the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing immediately and in no event more than five business days after receiving the subpoena or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order. The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that caused the subpoena or order to issue.

The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued.

9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve

1 all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom 2 unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such 3 person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that 4 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6 10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 Without written permission from the Designating Party, or a court order secured
8 after appropriate notice to all interested persons and after following the procedures
9 provided for in Local Rule 79-5.1, a Party may not file in the public record in this action
10 any Protected Material. In the event that the Court refuses to allow any document to be 11 filed under seal, despite the Receiving Party’s compliance with the foregoing, the 12 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules of this Court, the Receiving Party
13 may, nonetheless, file such documents with the Court as part of the public record.

14
15 11. FINAL DISPOSITION

16 Unless otherwise ordered or agreed to in writing by the Producing Party, within 17 60 days after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all 18 Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy the Protected Material. As used in 19 this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 20 summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.
21 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all
22 pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney
23 work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival 24 copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective 25 Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION), above.

26
27 12. MISCELLANEOUS
28

1 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of 2 any person to seek its modification in the future.

3 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 4 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 5 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 6 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 7 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

8 12.3 Inadvertent Production of Privileged Documents. If a Party, through 9 inadvertence, produces any document or information that it believes is immune from 10 discovery pursuant to an attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, or any 11 other privilege, such production shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege, and the 12 Producing Party may give written notice to the Receiving Party that the document or 13 information produced is deemed privileged and that return of the document or 14 information is requested. Upon receipt of such notice, the Receiving Party shall 15 immediately gather the original and all copies of the document or information of which 16 the Receiving Party is aware, in addition to any abstracts, summaries, or descriptions
17 thereof, and shall immediately return the original and all such copies to the Producing 18 Party. Nothing stated herein shall preclude a Party from challenging an assertion by the 19 other Party of privilege or confidentiality.

20 12.4 Exception for Public Information. Nothing in this Stipulation shall 21 be deemed in any way to restrict the use of documents or information which are 22 lawfully obtained or publicly available to a party independently of discovery in this 23 action, whether or not the same material has been obtained during the course of 24 discovery in the action and whether or not such documents or information have been 25 designated hereunder. However, in the event of a dispute regarding such independent 26 acquisition, a party wishing to use any independently acquired documents or 27 information shall bear the burden of proving independent acquisition.
28

12.5 Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, evidence of the existence or nonexistence of a designation under this Protective Order shall not be admissible for any purpose during any proceeding on the merits of this action.

12.6 This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any document or material designated Confidential Information or Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by counsel or the parties is entitled to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as the Court may rule on a specific document or issue.

12.7 Nothing in this Order shall affect the right of the Designating Party to disclose the Designating Party's own Confidential information or items to any person or entity. Such disclosure shall not waive any of the protections of this Order.

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.
